

Charles (Chas) T. Needham, Jr., 75

Charles (Chas) T. Needham, Jr., of Duxbury, passed away on July 25, 2016 at the age of 75. Beloved husband of Marilyn (Meg) Needham. Dear father of Jen Geisler and her husband Rich of VT, Tom Needham and his wife Gretchen of MN, and Katelyn Needham of FL. Brother of Caryl Lynch, Barry Needham, and Bruce Needham. Devoted grandfather of Piper, Gemma, Jack, Adelaide, Esme, and Milo.

Chas was born in Boston and raised in Randolph, MA. He and his family lived in Easton before moving to Duxbury in 1979. He worked for the New England Telephone Company for 44 years. Following retirement he enjoyed working for Fenway Park in customer service where he rooted on his beloved Red Sox, witnessing three World Series wins. During his children's growing years, Chas mentored many young people through coaching sports.

Chas took great pride in his family. Married for 45 years, Chas and Meg made a great team. He always had a story to share about his children or grandchildren. Chas loved to share a good laugh and felt incredibly blessed through his family and friends, all who meant so much to him. He saw the best in others and always tried his best. He was incredibly loyal, loving, and had a strong faith in God and his country. He will be dearly missed.

Visiting hours were held on Friday, July 29, 2016 at the MacDonald Funeral Home, 1755 Ocean Street (Rte. 139) Marshfield and was followed by a funeral service at North River Community Church, 334 Old Oak Street, Pembroke, MA. Contributions in Charles memory can be made to the North River Community Church and mailed to the address above.
